

A

Washington, D.C. Directory, 1827

Source Information:

Ancestry.com. Washington, D.C. Directory, 1827. [database online] Provo, UT: Ancestry.com, 2001. Original data: The Washington Directory, 1827. S.A. Elliot, 1827.

Name: Samuel L. Southard

Occupation: secretary of the navy

Place: dw 16w fronting President's square [Sixteenth Street West]

F street north, is expressed by Fn; south, by Fs; Seventh street west, by 7w; east, by 7e: the word street being always understood.

NY Evening Post, 15 February 1870

"Society in Washington, DC for Notable People and Houses"

"That house," the informant says "was handed from one cabinet member to another; Southard, of Georgia, the father of Mrs. Ogden Hoffman of New York, had it when he was Secretary of the Navy"

According to the General Service Administration the only house remaining on Lafayette Square that dates to the 1820s is the Dolly Madison house at 721 Madison Place NW.

Author: Southard, Samuel L. (Samuel Lewis), 1787-1842.

B

Title: Centennial address, on the birthday of George Washington, at Trenton, New Jersey, Feb. 22, 1832 ... With a brief biography of Senator Southard ...

Primary Material: Book

Subject(s): Washington, George, 1732-1799.
Southard, Samuel L. (Samuel Lewis), 1787-1842.

Publisher: [Pittsburgh : Lewis Co.], 1932-1935.

Description: 58 p. : facsim., ports. ; 24 cm.

Notes: "Samuel Lewis Southard: bibliography": p.53-58.
The address reprinted after one hundred years in loving memory of Virginia Eleanor Southard by her son, Southard Hay.

Location: Off-site Annex, Forrestal (AnnexA): Princeton Collection
(P)

Call Number: P94.804.031.13

1831: Southard was a pall-bearer for James Monroe